

RETURNING FAVES

1. Master of None: season 2 (May 12, Netflix)
2. Casual: season 3 (May 23, Hulu)
3. Orange Is the New Black: season 5 (June 9, Netflix)
4. Younger: season 4 (June 28, TV Land)

WATCH

HAVE the time of your life: ABC's Dirty Dancing reboot with Abigail Breslin airs May 24.

DIG IN. Showtime's new take on the trippy Twin Peaks is as irresistible as the series' signature cherry pie (May 21).

ROCK OUT with Zoe Lister-Jones and Adam Pally in the comedy Band Aid (June 2).

1. THE MARSH KING'S DAUGHTER

by Karen Dionne
A young woman is forced to come to grips with the dark secret of her past (and it's big: her father is her kidnapper) in a nail-biter perfect for Room fans.

2. PARTY GIRLS DIE IN PEARLS

by Plum Sykes
Take one posh university, mix in a queen bee, throw in a murder and you've got a mystery that makes Heathers look almost snoozy.

3. THE PEOPLE WE HATE AT THE WEDDING

by Grant Ginder
There's nothing like a madcap wedding (complete with bridezilla sis and neurotic mom) to remind you you're stuck with your crazy fam, for better or for worse.

4. WE ARE NEVER MEETING IN REAL LIFE

by Samantha Irby
Irby's razor-sharp essays on everything from reality TV to Twitter flirting will make you think hard and laugh even harder.

READ

SURPASSING CERTAINTY
by Janet Mock

Before she was a fearless advocate and influencer, Janet Mock struggled to feel valued. In her new book, she opens up about first love, self-acceptance, and the tough lessons of her 20s.

SALUTE Megan Leavey: Kate Mara stars as a real-life war hero who saved the dog who saved her (June 9).